6:35 Community Groups are invited to share feedback on last year and plans for coming year:

Barnetby in Bloom – Strength to strength on top of planting. 2023 finally achieve CRP village event in the medium cat after coming 2nd for 3 years.

Special mention to litter pickers

Proud of new crops planted on rec march this year thankful to help us – Rob Waltham. Happy to welcome for others to join and open for other projects

We have the signs of the village.

Subway – that has been sprayed, end of this summer it should get planted ready for next year.(ONGO)

Botanica – have a look

A long side as the best kept village we do the best from garden which takes place 21/22nd July = Barnetby in Bloom and coincides in the best kept village – over 2 days the judge is Gwen Jacklin – separate comp for best planted wheelbarrow.

Allison – see report. – st Barnabas and church warden

Maggie – Horticultural – 62nd annual show this year. Last year show was successful and saw good attendance. The annual talk was well attended. Looking forward to the show in Saturday 17th August.

Sue – Bowls Club – a report was shared

Barnetby Under 5's – It is open Mon – Thursday for children 2-5 run by Sally Abs and Laura Hempstick and staff and committee. This year Saly will be retiring after 25 years, Laura will take over as manager and Debroah Bishop will be the new deputy, There will be changes in Sept to become a CIO limited company run b 3 trustees – Laura as manager and 2 others who have to stay as a trustee for 7 years. Allison to continue as chair until open. Still under charity commission but a limited company. Allison wished Sally Anne well and very sorry to see her go,

5 staff but can apply for more trustees

Barry Baker thanked the groups.
